MATTHIAS WALKNER

RALLY FACTORY ATHLETE // DAKAR WINNER // RALLY WORLD CHAMPION equipped with KINI-RB COMPETITION GEAR

With the purchase of articles from the KINI-Red Bull collection you support the research work of the Wings for Life foundation!

„I Like the style.“ „The quality is good, you can see that they know what good stuff needs.“ „it's good for every condition.“ „I'm proud to wear it.“

This are some comments, Teamrider have about the KINI Line. But what is the KINI Line?

Everything started 1953 with the first motobike race of Johann Kinigadner. A normal Austrian boy who loved to ride motorcycles. A little while later, he had three kids who got infected by this virus too and all of them got professional motorcycle racers. A story of success started. While Johann Jr. was one of the best Austrian motocross racers and Klaus one of the best Supermoto riders worldwide, Heinz was probably the most successful one and became with two motocross world champion titles and as one of the best Rally riders a legend in this sport. The history of the KINI family continued and also Heinz's son Hannes became a motocross rider. The Kinis used their experience and started to produce motorbike clothing for themselves and their KINI Team. The real startshot for producing the KINI Line also for the market was given by a bad destiny punch. On July 26th, 2003 Hannes had a bad crash in a motocross race and got paralyzed from the neck down. Heinz tried everything to heal his son and searched with the help of his friend Dietrich Mateschitz, the founder of Red Bull, for a cure all over the world. Even if they didn't find the right treatment and there was no cure available yet, they found promising projects. But with the lack of interest from the pharma industrie and so with the lack of money, Dietrich and Heinz founded the Wings for Life Foundation, a foundation with the only goal of making spinal cord injuries curable. The KINI Line wants to support this Wings for Life foundation as you also can see the Wings for Life Logo on each product of KINI. The family business has already many followers, is meanwhile acting worldwide and well known for its good quality and the know-how which stands behind.
